Scholarship Form for Part-time Students in Advanced Course of Study • Studies in Professional Ministry Certification • Basic Graduate Theological Studies (Deacon Candidates) • United Methodist Studies (Transferring Clergy)

The Division of Ordained Ministry provides a grant of $225 per semester hour for required two- or three-hour courses (or equivalent) for part-time students for Advance Course of Study and Basic Graduate Theological Studies (Deacon candidates).

For studies in Professional Ministry Certification, a grant of $100 per semester hour for required two or three hour courses will be provided.

Qualifications: Students in Advanced Course of Study must be full- or part-time local pastors or associate members who have completed Course of Study. Professional certification students must be taking courses at a school authorized to offer studies in United Methodist professional specialized studies. Applications must be submitted to the seminary/school registrar for verification of enrollment in certification studies, basic graduate theological studies, or Advanced Course of Study.

Requirements for receiving the grant

1. The student must be enrolled (officially registered in the school) as a special student or as a part-time degree student in a school approved by the United Methodist University Senate. Full-time students in seminary degree programs are not eligible for this subsidy. Full-time is defined by the school.

2. PROFESSIONAL CERTIFICATION STUDIES (Check with your annual conference for enrollment requirements): Students must submit a one-time enrollment form to the Division of Ordained Ministry and their annual conference. The form (HE4064) can be downloaded from gbhem.org/certification.

3. BASIC GRADUATE THEOLOGICAL STUDIES (DEACON CANDIDATES): The applicant must have applied to the Division of Ordained Ministry through their district superintendent by completing the Candidacy Online Application, indicating their intention to become a deacon in full connection in the UMC, and have been assigned a candidacy mentor. Deacon candidates taking certification courses should be enrolled for certification in specialized ministries (using form HE4064.)

4. ADVANCED COURSE OF STUDY: For full-time and part-time local pastors who have completed the Course of Study; associate members of annual conferences; and ordained ministers transferring in from other denominations. Students taking Advanced Course of Study courses through Course of Study schools are not eligible for this scholarship. Advanced Course of Study students are required to balance foundational courses (Bible, theology, and church history) with functional courses (worship, preaching, counseling, etc.) in the 32-semester-hour curriculum required for ordination under the provisions of ¶324.6 of The Book of Discipline.

5. Applications must be submitted to the seminary/school registrar for verification of enrollment in certification studies, basic graduate theological studies, or Advanced Course of Study.

6. Submit applications to GBHEM following the start date for the named course. Students who do not complete a course or withdraw are ineligible to receive these funds to repeat the course. Due to limitations of funds, scholarships may not be guaranteed or may be reduced.

7. Online credit hours for Advance Course of Study (ACOS) may not exceed 12 semester hours. Online credit hours for Basic Graduate Theological Studies (non-degree students) for deacon candidates may not exceed 18 semester hours. Three of the five courses for professional certification may be taken online. The Division of Ordained Ministry will review, approve, or deny each grant application received based on compliance with the requirements.

8. Applications for funds must be submitted during the year in which the courses are taken. Funding is not available retroactively for courses taken in previous years. For questions regarding professional certification, deacon requirements, or advanced course of study, contact Division of Ordained Ministry, Certification Office, Pamela Frost, PO Box 340007, Nashville, TN 37203-0007; 615-340-7416.
