Do you give permission for GBHEM to share your contact information with United Methodist theological schools in order for them to send you enrollment materials?

YES

NO

Upon certification, GBHEM is pleased to encourage all certified candidates to participate in a financial wellness curriculum through EY Financial Planning Services (a value of $2,500 - $3,000, sponsored by Wespath Benefits and Investments). The curriculum, and participation in the program, is confidential between the recipient and EY representative and is geared toward United Methodist candidates and clergy.

Upon certification, do you give permission for GBHEM to share your contact information with EY Financial Planning in order for them to invite you to participate in EY Financial Planning Services?
